PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

Over the last few summers, I've made lists of home projects I hope to accomplish in the quieter days and evenings of June, July and August. Summer is a good time for me to be productive and address things that don't get enough attention during the academic year. On the Fourth of July, I spent most of the day addressing some of this year's list, and it felt so wonderful! I cleaned out some drawers and cabinets, hung some artwork, did some troubleshooting on my malfunctioning turntable and rearranged the guest room. I enjoyed the work so much and savored the feeling of accomplishment. And if you're a list maker, you know the particular joy of crossing off completed tasks! There is, of course, more to do. There will always be a list. But it sure feels good to get some things done around the house!

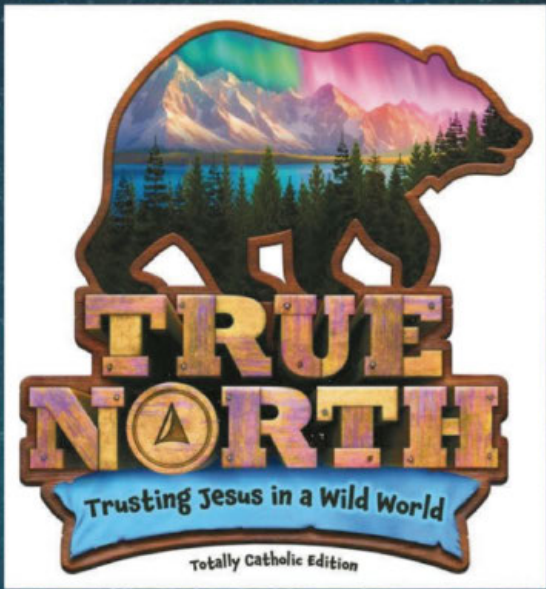

Later this month, our parish staff and school leadership will take a couple of days together with a local church consultant to do some visioning. It is a good time of year for us to strengthen our working relationships and to spend some time in reflection. We are so blessed to have such an incredibly talented and dedicated staff, and it will be a gift to spend some time together. We welcome your prayers as we do this important work, as it will enhance what we do all year long.

Peace,
Fr. Greg

P.S. The parish office will be closed on July 22 and July 24 for staff in-service.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

KC MOTHERS IN CHARGE - VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Every week, volunteers from (KC MIC) make phone calls to families who are grieving the violent loss of a loved one. These families need support and you can help.

Do you have the compassion to listen and offer comfort to those in need? If so, this may be the right volunteer opportunity for you.

Phone calls are made Monday - Friday, 10:00 am-3:00 pm. Volunteer shifts typically last two hours. If you are interested in supporting the important mission of KC Mothers in Charge, please email latrice.murry@kcmothersincharge.org.

ST. KATHARINE DREXEL, ST. MONICA PARISH AND A CONNECTION TO VISITATION PARISH

(This history was published in a recent issue of the Diocese's weekly communication, The Monday Minute. We have added the connection to Visitation.)

In the early 1900s, Bishop John J. Hogan recognized the challenges faced by Black Catholics in Kansas City, who endured poverty, discrimination and limited access to religious services. To address this, he enlisted Fr. Cyprian Sauer to gather the community and establish a mission.

Despite skepticism from many white Catholics, Bernard Corrigan contributed $1,000 to support the effort. Ruthe Lange helped Fr. Cyprian identify 35 Black Catholics, and in 1910, they began gathering for Mass in a schoolroom provided by the Sisters of St. Joseph. However, opposition from a local pastor forced them to stop meeting.

Determined to continue, Fr. Cyprian sought financial support from Mother Katharine Drexel, a philanthropist devoted to serving marginalized communities. After months of waiting and praying to St. Monica of Africa, he received a response. Mother Drexel visited Kansas City, selected a site at 17th and Lydia, and donated $8,000 to establish a church and school for Black Catholics.

On October 2, 1910, the mission was formally opened as St. Monica Mission for Colored Catholics. By 1913, with additional support - including another $3,000 from Mother Drexel - a new church and school were built, free of debt.

Over the decades, St. Monica Mission grew and eventually merged with St. Joseph Parish and Risen Christ Catholic Church in 1995, forming what is today known as St. Monica Catholic Church.

Mother Katharine Drexel's generosity played a pivotal role in ensuring that Black Catholics in Kansas City had a place of worship and education, overcoming widespread discrimination and offering them a firm foundation in faith.

When Visitation Church was renovated in 2002-04, the pastor, Fr. Norm Rotert, was intentional about the images selected for the St. Joseph (daily Mass) chapel. Every image on the reredos (the screen behind the altar) and every santos (statue) for the niches had a connection to the parish, the neighborhood or the city. Fr. Rotert made it clear that included St. Katherine Drexel, whose image sits in the southeast niche, because of her generous and influential work with the Kansas City Black Catholic community.

SISTER PARISH

VISITING SANTA MARIA MADRE DE LOS POBRES BY JULIE SPAETH

I was honored to be part of the delegation visiting Santa Maria Madre de los Pobres in May of 2024. It was like a grand reunion with family and friends! Celebration was the key word of our visit! It was a true blessing to be able to celebrate in solidarity with our Salvadoran brothers and sisters during the week long celebration of the 40th Anniversary of Santa Maria de los Pobres. It was very evident how our parishes truly cherish our Sister Parish relationship. We celebrated with the school children when Bob presented his book, La Chica de la Chacra. The children were thrilled to hear the story and see their neighborhood when it appeared on the screen. Each student received their own signed copy of the book. We celebrated the work the Sponsorship Program does for the children in the parish. We visited five families in their homes who are sponsored by Visitation Parish. They were all grateful for the help they are receiving.

JULY IS MADRE MONTH!

In 1988, our parish held a vote and agreed to enter into a sister parish relationship with Santa Maria Madre de los Pobres. Over thirty years later, that friendship has continued to grow! Whether you have been able to travel on a delegation, participate in the sponsorship program or have contributed in some other way, your generosity has made a difference to this wonderful community. Please consider making a special gift this month. Here are some of the ways your money makes a difference: CAPI- the early childhood education center, the sponsorship program, the medical and dental clinic and medical delegations, solidarity delegations and annual financial support, including providing water filters and regular contributions for needed supplies and capital improvements. Send your donations to the church office by July 31 or go to our parish website at www.visitation.org to donate.

Please consider a donation to our sister parish. Your support is needed now more than ever.

To help celebrate July as our sister parish,
