PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

As I announced recently, our Shared VISION Campaign has reached the $10,000,000 threshold! Thanks to some very generous donors thus far, we have surpassed expectations on our way forward to a very lofty goal! Many of you have made a pledge, motivated by strong faith and a commitment to the future of our school. We are so grateful to you! And there are many others who are still discerning a pledge. Thank you for being open to the invitation to make a sacrificial gift to renew and transform our school for a new century of learning. If you are able to do so, I urge you to make a pledge before the end of the calendar year, as our contractor is preparing to solicit bids and finalize the project budget early in 2026. Your timely pledge will enable us to have more clarity and confidence moving forward. You can make a pledge on our website (<https://www.visitationschoolkc.org/sharedvision>) or contact Megan Burdolski in the parish office for more information. I'd be happy to visit with you as well and offer further information about the campaign if you'd find it helpful. Please join this effort as we are in the home stretch of this very important phase of our campaign!

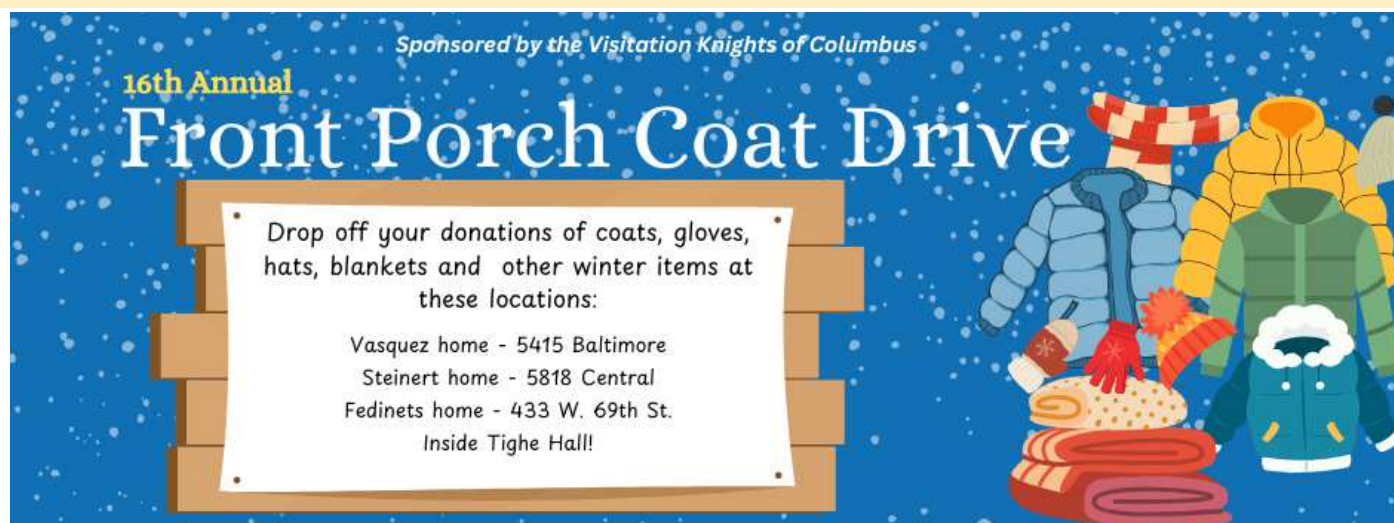

We are so grateful to our Capital Campaign leaders and committee: Terry & Lindsey Anderson, Tom & Virginia Coppinger, Mark & Amy Thompson, Matt Krull, Don Lueke and Sally Sallee. They have worked so faithfully and diligently with Rozanne Prather Consulting, Megan Burdolski and myself to get us to this point. We also thank our Building Committee: Ryan Larson, Tina Mateski, Vinny Schiavone, Ryan Townsend and Joe Vessell. In collaboration with Hollis + Miller Architects and Newkirk/Novak Construction Partners, this group, along with Dr. Melissa Wagner, Megan Burdolski and myself, has provided great leadership and expertise.

All this highlights the incredible impact a capital campaign and building project have on a parish and school community. Along with renewed and transformed buildings, this process brings abundant gifts forward and promotes new levels of collaboration and community as together we own the mission of our parish. We look forward to the vision of the future, and celebrate the power of the present as we realize that the Reign of God is among us!

Peace - Fr. Greg Haskamp

THE SHAMROCK SNAPSHOT

SPOTLIGHTING FAITH AND LIFE AT VISITATION SCHOOL

Teammates, Classmates, Lifelong Friends

The 8th Grade Girls Volleyball A and B Teams both brought home City Championships wins - both titles won right here in our own Visitation gym! But even more impressive than the wins are the bonds that made them possible. Many of these girls have grown up together since Kindergarten, and their friendships shine just as brightly as their medals. With classmates cheering them on - including a big crowd of 8th grade boys - this victory was a celebration of teamwork, school spirit, and lifelong Vis connections. Way to go, girls!

Visitation Insight Night

Visitation hosted a successful Insight Night with more than 80 individuals attending this packed event providing key information on our academic environment. Special thanks to the 7th grade girls that graciously helped welcome families to our school that night and our dedicated faculty for sharing valuable insight into the curriculum. What a wonderful opportunity to embrace both new and returning families to our faith-based community, highlighting our academic excellence and promising future.

PEACE TREE

PEACE TREE

The Peace Tree is Visitation's Christmas giving program. Each year we support 15 local social service agencies by providing much-needed gifts for the families and individuals they serve. Your generosity this Christmas matters more than ever!

Please pick up a tag and return your unwrapped gift with tag affixed by 8:00 am on Sunday, December 7. We'll make sure everything reaches the agencies in time for delivery to those in need.

Questions? Contact Marny Sherman at 816-509-2892 or Karen Miller at 816-753-5155 x1308.

RACIAL JUSTICE

The Catholic Church sets aside the month of November to honor the history of Black Catholics in our country. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) is the primary source for the information in this bulletin. Although these men and women are on the road to sainthood in the Catholic Church, it is also true that they experienced exclusion and discrimination throughout their lives from within and outside the Catholic community.

Venerable Henriette Delille (1813-1862) was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, where she would live her entire life. For the love of Jesus and responding to the Gospel's mandate, she was determined to help those in need. Henriette was also a person who suffered as she made her way through life, and she bore many crosses. She taught those around her that sanctity can be attained in following the path of Jesus. It was in this manner that she dealt with her troubles and major obstacles to achieve her goals. Some of the troubles Henriette met were the resistance of the ruling population to the idea of a black religious congregation, the lack of finances to do the work, the taunts and disbelief of people in her mission, the lack of support from both the Church and civil authority and poor health.

However, Henriette practiced heroic virtue. She had faith, lived in hope and practiced love. She was compassionate, forgiving and merciful. She believed in justice and was not afraid to do what was right in the eyes of God. God blessed her efforts and, in 1842, she founded the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Family. Henriette died 20 years later on November 17, 1862. Her funeral was held at St. Augustine Church. Her obituary stated, "... Miss Henriette Delille had for long years consecrated herself totally to God without reservation..." For more information on Venerable Henriette's cause, check out the website for the cause (<https://www.henrietteedelille.com/>).

Venerable Fr. Augustus Tolton (1854-1897)

Venerable Augustus Tolton was the first U.S. Roman Catholic priest publicly known to be black when he was ordained in 1886. A former slave who was baptized and reared Catholic, Tolton formally studied in Rome. He was ordained in Rome on Easter Sunday at the Archbasilica of St. John Lateran. Fr. Tolton led the development and construction of St. Monica's Catholic Church as a black "National Parish Church", which was completed in 1893. Tolton's success at ministering to black Catholics quickly earned him national attention within the Catholic hierarchy. He is the subject of the 1973 biography from Slave to Priest by Sister Caroline Hemesath. For more information on Fr. Augustus' cause, check out the website for his cause:https://tolton.archchicago.org/.

Servant of God Julia Greeley (1833 and 1848-1918)

Servant of God Julia Greeley was born into slavery in Hannibal, Missouri sometime between 1833 and 1848. Freed by Missouri's Emancipation Act in 1865, Julia subsequently earned her keep by serving white families in Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico—though mostly in the Denver area. Julia entered the Catholic Church at Sacred Heart Parish in Denver in 1880 and was an outstanding supporter of all the parish. The Jesuits who ran the parish considered her the most enthusiastic promoter of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus they had ever seen. Every month she visited on foot every fire station in Denver and delivered literature of the Sacred Heart League to the firemen, Catholics and non-Catholics alike. A daily communicant, Julia had a rich devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and the Blessed Virgin and continued her prayers while working. She joined the Secular Franciscan Order in 1901 and was active in it until her death in 1918. As part of the Cause for Canonization, Julia's mortal remains were transferred to Denver's Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception on June 7, 2017. For more information on Servant of God Greeley's cause, check out the website [https://juliagreeley.org/Servant of God Sr. Thea Bowman, FSPA \(1937-1990\)](https://juliagreeley.org/Servant of God Sr. Thea Bowman, FSPA (1937-1990))

This rite marks the formal beginning of the period of catechumenate for these individuals. $50,000 Match for Giving Tuesday to Benefit Shared VISION Campaign!

Giving Tuesday is December 2. On this national day of giving, there is an opportunity for your generosity to go twice as far!

Thanks to a generous school family, the first $50,000 in Giving Tuesday gifts and pledges to our Shared VISION Capital Campaign will be matched dollar-for-dollar! Even better, the Giving Tuesday match will be available until Sunday, December 7, 2025.

We're doubling the impact of your kindness so that, together, we can ensure the legacy of Visitation's most enduring ministry.

- ♣ Haven't yet shared a gift? Now is the perfect time to leverage the $50,000 match to double the impact of your generosity.
- ♣ Already pledged or donated? You can maximize the challenge by contributing to your pledge or by sharing an extra gift that will be matched!

Keep an eye on your inbox or the Visitation social media channels for ways to support Giving Tuesday to benefit the Shared VISION Campaign.

To share a gift of stock or appreciated assets, please reach out to Megan Burdolski at 816-381-6911 or megan@visitation.org.
