SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

WITHIN OUR COMMUNITY

REMEMBERING OUR BELOVED DECEASED THIS NOVEMBER

The month of November has always been set aside to remember our beloved dead. You will notice the Book of Remembrance near the Good Friday cross; our burning bush votive tree and all the photos appearing on the catafalque. You are invited to bring a photo, framed or unframed, of your deceased loved one and place it on or near the catafalque (in the baptistry) anytime during the month of November. You may remember loved ones not from our community by adding their name to our book of remembrance or lighting a votive candle in their memory. Also, during the month of November we will sing a special litany where we will name each of the deceased members of our community in song and pray for them in a special way at the end of our communion rite. By the end of November, all community members who died this past year will be named in the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist.

PLANNING AND UNDERSTANDING A CATHOLIC FUNERAL

A funeral liturgy is rich in beautiful symbolism, movement, and prayer. Do you or your loved ones know what your favorite scripture or hymns are?

What does the church say about cremation? What is the difference between a funeral mass and memorial? How do you plan for a Catholic Funeral? Pastoral Associate Chris Sanders will speak on how to plan a Catholic funeral or memorial. Join us on November 30 at 6:00 pm in Tighe Hall. Please RSVP to 753-7422 by November 18.

VISITATION'S ANNUAL "ADVENT WREATH MAKING" event returns in-person after Sunday Masses on November 28.

RACIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE

This school year we welcomed four high school scholars from Cristo Rey Kansas City to serve as teacher aides for our kindergarten through second grade students at our school. Now, roughly two months into our school year, we are thrilled to report on the positive impact this program is having on both these Cristo Rey students and on our Visitation community.

This program benefits all involved in three important ways:

1) These four Cristo Rey work-study scholars, who have expressed interest in a career in education, benefit from real-life classroom experience and from the mentorship of our amazing Visitation School faculty.

2) With the help of our Cristo Rey scholars, our Visitation teachers can focus more time on the critical educational aspects of their job and less time on activities like grading papers. Our Vis teachers also leverage the Cristo Rey teacher aides to provide students with additional assistance in critical areas like reading.

As one of our teachers reports: “Three of the Cristo Rey interns, Rosemary, Ashli and Jeoli come in my room at the beginning of every morning. They check student morning work, answer questions and help students who don't understand something about their assignment. I also have them work one on one with students, reinforcing different skills. Since they have been overseeing morning work, I have had more time to pull together small groups of students to read with them and work on different skills. I am able to spend time in small groups with more students each day than I have been in the past.”

3) Most importantly, our Visitation students in grades K-2 benefit from exposure to role models who often come from backgrounds quite different than theirs, broadening their worldview and helping them to better understand and appreciate the diversity of God's people.

We are also happy to report and especially to congratulate Cristo Rey Visitation School teacher aide, Julio Baneulas, who was named one of four October Cristo Rey Employees of the Month!

- Rocco Bernard Bianchino – child of God, son of Benjamin and Christina Bianchino

Volunteer as a Baptism Visitor! It can be challenging for families with young children to make it to church for weekly Mass, let alone other parish events. Consider becoming a Baptism Visitor and show these young families that they are a part of a faith community that cares.
