

VISITATION PARISH THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT MARCH 20, 2022

THE SEASON OF LENT

- ‡ Pray - Our St. Joseph and Blessed Sacrament chapels, and our church nave are open during the day for personal prayer. On Mondays, they remain open until 6:30 pm for parish children and their families. After the weekday 8:15 am Mass, the Rosary is prayed in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. On Wednesday, there is Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the St. Joseph Chapel from 9:00 am - 1:00 pm. Catholics are encouraged to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for Easter. Our Parish Communal Penance Service is Tuesday, April 5 at 6:00 pm.
- ‡ Fast and abstain - Persons between the ages of 18 and 59 are asked to keep a simple fast (one full meal plus two smaller meals that together do not equal one full meal and no snacking) on Good Friday. Persons over the age of 14 are asked to abstain from eating meat on all Fridays of Lent.
- ‡ Give Alms - Opportunities for generosity include: Rice Bowl (benefits Catholic Relief Services) throughout the season; Catholic Relief Services Collection (overseas emergency aid) on the March 30-31 weekend; and the Good Friday Collection on April 22 (benefits Christians in the Holy Land). Also, remember the food collection each weekend in the narthex and the special food collection on Holy Thursday.

A LITTLE VISITATION

Hello Everyone,

A few weeks back I hosted at the rectory a little dinner for a wonderful couple I knew from my days at Lourdes Parish in Harrisonville. We fell into easy talk of old days and somehow or another the woman and I ended up in my sitting room surveying something. I forget what. Anyway, she spied a rather large table radio I have in there, a “tombstone” model from the middle 1930s. For years it lived in an ancient Gulf Station in Locust Bayou, Arkansas, where part of my paternal grandmother’s family eked out a very modest existence. I told her that although it worked when I last switched it on, I had not fired it up in many years. I don’t know what possessed me, I guess my friendship with the lady and her husband, but I snapped the worn wooden knob on the front of the thing to the “on” position and the big black dial lit up “Zenith” like an elderly man suddenly opening wide his eyes after a long nap. Soon the rough old beast was warm enough to catch radio waves and began playing KMBZ back to us. Then I turned the tuner knob to find other AM broadcasts and heard a sound that one does not encounter on modern radios; the static and faint, scratchy signals from faraway places between the stronger stations. It is a very distinctive, old time sound. I loved hearing it again. I think I have that in mind now because it is how my brain is tonight. I can think of subjects that merit a comment, but my cranium is fogged with static and weak signals, ranging wide and tired over too much territory. Let me see if I can tune into something intelligible.

Today a couple of folks from Hollis and Miller Architects came by to meet with a few of the staff and me. We talked of strategies to give the parish a chance to make its wishes known about renovations and additions to our school building. This is an important issue but, to my mind, it has been necessary to put it on the back burner of the big parochial stove until we are finished with our parish Synod conversations later this month. The Synod process is a unique, worldwide consultation of the Church, by the Church, and it is taking place most everywhere. Our Synodal conversations will happen in the church building Saturday, 26 March, from 9:00 to 11:30am and through “Zoom” Monday, 28 March, from 7:00 to 9:00pm. We ask that all interested parties register by calling the office so we can know how many people are coming and make our arrangements for detailed, structured conversation accordingly. I will say this again: The Synod is about the Roman Catholic Church trying to get better at listening to itself and speaking to itself. If you have thought about it very much, you might agree with me that there is significant room for improvement on that score. Our conversations will seek to surface the joys and frustrations that chronically abide in your heart about the Catholic Church in its worship, pastoral stances, and politics. The fruit of our parish conversations will be reported to the diocese. The diocese will convey the sense of its parishes to Rome. This will happen all over the world in parishes, schools, convents, monasteries, chanceries, presbyterates and episcopal conferences. I pray, and ask you to pray, that the process might transcend the banal and amplify the essential. May it be a catalyst toward whatever species of conversion the Holy Spirit means for the Church to digest. Thirty-five years ago, I vividly remember our diocesan bishop, John J. Sullivan, solemnly saying in a sermon to his priests, “A deaf Church, is a dead Church.” He repeated it, over and over, like a mantra in prayer. In those days, I did not have the convictions of experience to quite understand what he found so urgently compelling about that insight. Now, along with a lot of you, I understand it painfully well.

And as for Hollis and Miller Architects, not so long after our Synod sessions everyone will be informed of still more big meetings and given opportunities to weigh in on how to clean-up, fix-up and build-up our school. Back in the beginning, my only desire was to get Kindergarten more safely situated in the Baltimore Street building than it is on Main Street. But after some months of talking and visiting a few other schools, I can see that our elementary school must be significantly freshened at a minimum and, perhaps, even re-envisioned in order to stay viable and vital in our world of today. We will do little more than polish the doorknobs if that is all you want. But I suspect you want more than that and, I think, you should want more than that. We need to bring security, technological, mechanical and ergonomic improvements to our school. If you strongly support it, we even need to bring kitchen facilities, storage and maybe even early childhood capacity to it also. It is going to depend on what you want and, of course, on what you are willing to pay for. So stay tuned. Our parochial radio is hot, the tubes are glowing, the dial is beaming, and there is much to broadcast, much to hear.

In our Holy Communion—Msgr. Bradley S. Offutt

SAINT OSCAR ROMERO

March 24, 1980

Archbishop Oscar Romero was murdered while celebrating Mass in El Salvador. Recognizing him as “a martyr for the faith”, Pope Francis canonized him in 2018. For the occasion, Pope Francis wore the same, blood-stained belt worn by Saint Romero on the day he died.

“A church that does not provoke any crisis, preach a gospel that does not unsettle, proclaim a word of God that does not get under anyone’s skin or a word of God that does not touch the real sin of the society in which it is being proclaimed, what kind of gospel is that?” Homily on April 16, 1978

“God’s best microphone is Christ, and Christ’s best microphone is the Church, and the Church is all of you. Let each one of you, in your own job, in your own vocation- nun, married person, bishop, priest, high school or university student, day laborer, wage earner, market women - one in your own place...live the faith intensely and feel that in your own surroundings you are a true microphone of God our Lord.” Homily on July 8, 1979

“The church, with its message, with its word, will meet a thousand obstacles, just as the river encounters boulders, rocks, chasms. No matter the river carries a promise: ‘I will be with you to the end of the ages’ and ‘the gates of hell shall not prevail’ against the will of the Lord.” Homily on December 8, 1977

On this 42nd anniversary of Saint Romero’s death, may we pause and reflect upon how his faithful witness compels us to act and live.

RICE BOWL

DRIVEN BY A DREAM

Malnutrition is widespread in Rwanda, but Gloriose and her husband are doing everything they can to keep their children healthy and set them up for success. From learning to grow a kitchen garden to participating in a micro-savings group, Gloriose and Karekezi know it takes many resources to help their children thrive. How have you helped others access what they need this Lent? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more. Please take your Rice Bowl today; they are available in the narthex!

RACIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE/FAITH FORMATION

The parish Racial Justice committee meets the second Thursday of the month. This is an update from the March 10 meeting.

Sub Committee Reports

- Outreach: This subcommittee supports the efforts of parish exchanges and JoAnn Axtell shared information about the upcoming events between St. Monica's/Visitation parishes: A discussion on Thursday, March 24 at 6:30 pm at St. Monica's and a March 27 Lenten prayer service at Visitation at 6:30 pm. All parishioners are invited to these two events.

- Education Subcommittee: Youth for Change met on March 6 at St. Monica's. Six young people from Vis and ten from St. Monica's discussed potential projects and identified leadership. Next Youth for Change meeting will be on April 24 at Visitation. Linda Hughes and Ramonda Doakes coordinate this effort.
- Just Faith: Faith and Racial Healing (the third 8-week session) is meeting Wednesday afternoons with registered participants Jan Fakoury, Larry Guillot, Bruce and Janie Palmer, Clare Bond, Audrey Burns, Katie Levi, Barb Truta, Kathleen Wiedeman, Megan Burdolski and Sarah Jane Stephenson. Kristin Kratofil and Peg Ekerdt are the facilitators.
- Communication: The committee has helped roll out three episodes of a VisOnMain podcast about Open Wide Our Hearts. Over 100 people have listened to the first episode with Fr. Brad, Emmet Pierson, Nancy Hesse, Sandy Midkiff, John Santner and Kara Bemboom-Grefrath discussing Open Wide Our Hearts. The second episode is now available featuring school parents.

New Initiatives Stirring Among Us?

Fr. Brad suggested that reaching out to converse and connect with individuals is often a great way to learn and increase understanding. Jan Fakoury seconded reaching out and suggested asking a friend to grab a hamburger at Jim's Diner, 69th and Prospect or the Equal Minded Cafe at 43rd and Troost. Other committee members suggested taking a friend to The Urban Café, or scheduling a meeting at The Combine or Equal Minded Care/Ubuntu Village. More new initiatives will evolve—of that we are confident as we remain committed to the Cristo Rey Intern program at our school, the Just Faith programs, the Open Wide Our Hearts podcast effort, and trips to explore the city's neighborhoods different than our own.

THANK YOU TO VISITATION

From Duchesne Clinic

Dear Karen,

On behalf of Duchesne Clinic and our patients, thank you for your Visitation Catholic Communities' grant award in the amount of $1,000 to support Duchesne Clinic. We're honored to be a recipient of these grant monies used to underwrite the transformational first month of medical care for 15 new patients. You've helped these individuals take the first step towards hope for their future.

As the new Executive Director, I welcome the opportunity to further the good work George Noonan has ensured during his time at Caritas Clinics. With experience in healthcare for the underserved and operations management, together with degrees in social sciences and psychology, I am well versed in the struggles involved in caring for the most vulnerable members of our communities. The barriers that exist are daunting and yet it is so important to keep our communities healthy and safe. I am excited to partner with you to make certain even more people have access to the high quality care Caritas Clinics provides.

Your giving heart allows us to do the important work we do, helping change the lives of so many who would be lost without medical care. It is a clear statement of how you value our mission: to reveal and foster God's healing love by improving the health of the people and communities we serve, especially those who are poor and vulnerable. During these unpredictable times as we still struggle with a worldwide pandemic, we are grateful you stand with us to care for those who need care the most.

Sincerely,

*Michele Surber
Executive Director*

VISITATION SYNOD

Synod on Synodality

Participate at Vis in March

The Synod on Synodality is a two-year process beginning in 2021 and concluding in 2023. Pope Francis invites the input of the entire Church in this process. Visitation offers two ways to participate with fellow parishioners: Saturday, March 26, 9:00 am (in person) and Monday, March 28, 7:00 pm (via Zoom)

For more information, see the parish website.

Help us plan! Let us know you are coming!

Use the QR code at right, visit the parish website at www.visitation.org - click on Synod, or call the parish office at 753-7422.

These are the questions we will discuss on March 26 and March 28:

- ⇒ In "journeying together"... What does our parish do really well?
- ⇒ What could we do a better job with?
- ⇒ What is a source of joy or sustenance for you, spiritually?
- ⇒ What is a struggle for you, personally, in the faith?
- ⇒ When you come to Mass, what one thing are you most looking for?
- ⇒ What gifts do you, personally, bring to the Church?
- ⇒ What breaks your heart about things going on in the Church?
- ⇒ What specific hope do you have for the Church moving forward?
