RCIA

RCIA

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey of faith in community.

AN INFORMATIONAL SESSION WILL BE HELD TUESDAY, AUGUST 30, 6:00 - 8:00 pm in the Faith Formation Room.

WHO JOURNEYS THROUGH RCIA?

- Adults who have experienced God in their life, have begun to know Jesus, but have never been baptized.
- Adults who were baptized in the Catholic church as a child and are now asking to celebrate the remaining Sacraments of Initiation (Eucharist and Confirmation) in the Catholic tradition.
- Baptized and unbaptized adults who were brought up in another Christian tradition and are now seeking full communion in the Catholic church through the Sacraments.
- The entire Visitation community! – our parishioners and pastor, our pastoral associates and parish staff – all journey with RCIA Inquirers through our prayers and participation. All are welcome on Tuesday nights!

Each person's journey to Catholicism is unique! To schedule an informational meeting, contact Teresa Albright in the parish office at 816-753-5155 x1306 or teresa@church.visitation.org.

MISSION STATEMENT

- ◇ to create a sense of community and belonging for children living within the parish boundaries.
- ◇ to assist their parents in sharing the tradition of our Catholic faith.
- ◇ to teach, lead and encourage students in the practice of prayer.
- ◇ to encourage a familiarity and love of Scripture.
- ◇ to help foster an awareness of the presence of God in their daily lives.
- ◇ to foster an awareness of the social teaching of the Church.
- ◇ to see their gifts as God-given to be used in service to neighbor and society.

An Ecumenical Note:

School of Religion at Vis offers opportunities to gather for ecumenical prayer and demonstrate a visible unity among Christians. We extend a warm welcome especially to our protestant and non-denominational Christian parents, friends and neighbors. The S.O.R. Ministry Team strives to make S.O.R. a welcoming place for all through common prayer and Gospel values. While explicitly Catholic in doctrine and identity, each lesson of the S.O.R. curriculum and adult opportunities are rooted in Scripture.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

REFUGEE ASSISTANCE - HELP NEEDED

The Visitation Refugee Assistance Committee (VRAC) is working with Della Lamb Community Services to prepare to welcome a family of new Kansas City neighbors. The new project is called "House to Home."

The process will begin with the collection of household items. Della Lamb will then match the Visitation community with a family relocating to our city and give us the location of their new home. VRAC will clean the home, move and organize our gifts there and finally meet the family and provide a welcoming meal.

Thank you to those who have contributed household items already. Monetary donations are also most welcome and will be used to purchase any remaining items for the family. To make financial donations please go to our parish website, <https://www.visitation.org/>: Click the online giving button, under the Offertory and Contributions section, enter the amount of your donation as Other. Please make a note that it is for refugee assistance.

We are also asking for volunteers to help as movers, cleaners, organizers, and food helpers for the family's first meal. If you are interested in helping in any way or if you have any questions, please reach out to Julie Morrand at jgmorrand@yahoo.com, 913-558-8825 or contact Karen Miller at karen@church.visitation.org. Thank you!

"For I was a stranger and you welcomed me." Matthew 25:35

SISTER PARISH

This year's 8th annual Ride For Madre cycling event welcomes all riders to join us for an afternoon of cycling fun on the new Rock Island Trail in Raytown. Departing from Crane Brewery on Friday, September 16, there will be two ride options: 10 miles departing at 2:00 pm and 20+ miles departing around 12:00 noon. Social hour will commence after the ride completes around 3:00 pm.

This event has made a tremendous difference over the years in the lives of literally hundreds of people in our sister parish in El Salvador.

Donations to this year's Ride For Madre can also be made at church, (put Ride For Madre in comments of check) or at our Go Fund Me Page:

<https://www.gofundme.com/f/ride-for-madre-2022?qid=c50368e48e9d73a6c2497333159c1a2e>.

RACIAL JUSTICE

Mission Statement:

The Visitation Racial Justice Committee is committed to exploring and implementing ways in which the entire Visitation Community-the overall parish, school and all other parish ministries, can work to support racial justice, education and inclusion.

Since 2020 RJC Committee has supported this mission through various activities and initiatives including: supporting Cristo Rey interns at the school, fellowship events with St. Monica's, sponsoring outreach programs like visiting Mo Hives, offering four Just Faith Racial Healing discussions and establishing a Youth for Change youth group. All of these experiences have been personally fulfilling for those that participated. That is why this week we were thrilled to see the value of the positive impact of these diverse experiences confirmed by science. Please check out these articles related to a recent study of friendship and its transformative power!
